

Marco Piteo

Marco Piteo leads a team of eight Adelaide based professionals in his accounting firm Piteo Accounting & Advisory. He has been a Certified Practicing Accountant (CPA) since 2003 and in addition runs 'i-Think Bookkeeping' as part of his organizational structure.

Marco holds a Bachelor of Business (Banking & Finance) as well as CPA qualifications and holds a CPA Public Practice Licence. He commenced his professional career in 2002 with Iannella Gaskin Cutone in Prospect, where he first met Theo Marinis.

Over the course of his career, Marco has worked with, and become a partner of, a number of leading accounting firms before becoming the sole partner of his current business in 2015. Piteo Accounting & Advisory is a full service accounting practice and prides itself on its willingness to engage with professionals from other disciplines in order to get the best possible outcome for the client.
