Schurgott & Co Lawyers

Schurgott & Co Lawyers is a family-run Adelaide and Sydney based law practice specialising in estate planning, business structuring, superannuation, trusts, taxation and commercial law. They work with clients all over Australia and have a strong focus on small to medium sized business.

They have extensive experience advising on trust and business structures, commercial transactions and estate and succession planning – both complex and simple. Unlike many small law firms they also have tax expertise meaning that clients save the cost of bringing in specialist taxation advice.

The practice is led by Ken Schurgott a former President of the Tax Institute of Australia and his son Andrew Schurgott. Ken is known nationally as a taxation expert while Andrew has significant experience in commercial law, corporate law, wills and estates.
